About AVSO

AVSO is the most diverse appraisal organization in the Federal Government, providing independent real property valuation and mineral evaluation services for the Department's bureaus and offices in accordance with the highest professional and ethical standards.

At nearly 200 employees, AVSO is also the 3rd largest appraisal organization in the Federal Government, only trailing the VA and HUD in the number of appraisers on staff.

AVSO has offices from Anchorage to Atlanta, Palm Springs to Pennsylvania and scattered all over in between. We are geographically dispersed to provide the best coverage to our clients.
